Case No.: 1-10-cv-74

Chief Judge Curtis L. Collier

PLAINTIFF’S SUGGESTED VOIR DIRE QUESTIONS

Mickel G. Hoback (“Plaintiff”), by and through counsel, submits the following Suggested Voir Dire Questions to be posed by the Court to the prospective jurors in this case:

1. Does anyone among the panel members hold the view that if a person is receiving compensation or payment for a partial disability that the person receiving such a payment should not be entitled to hold full time employment with an employer.
2. Does anyone among the panel members hold the view that if a person is receiving compensation or payment for a partial disability that this is a fact that is required to be disclosed to an employer.
3. Does anyone among the panel members hold the view that if a person is receiving a partial disability payment that an employer should be allowed to discharge the employee for receiving such a payment.
4. Has anyone among the panel members ever been terminated from a job.
5. Has anyone among the panel members ever been terminated from a job for reasons or under circumstances that the person feels were unfair or unjustified. If so, what were the circumstances.
6. Has anyone among the panel members been required to terminate a person from a job.
7. Has anyone among the panel members ever drawn unemployment compensation.

Respectfully submitted,
